Winner—Ch. m, by Perkins or Rowland—Evolyn.
Went to post at 2:00. At post 5 minutes. Startigood. Won easily; second the same. Evelyn Byrd was in a soft spot and although pressed closely in the first half came away easily in the last eighth. Mango ran well, but faitered slightly in the closing strides. Harney ran a good race and fluished stoutly. Bomage hung when the pinch came. The race should do her good and she should beat this kind of a field before long. Star Cotton showed a clever turn of speed, but tired slightly in the last eighth.

Horatched—28372 Skip Me, 106; 29116 Lord Howard, 106; 29153 Hanan, 98.

Overweights—Evelyn Byrd, 2 pounds; Mango, 1; Harney, 2; Gallopin, 1; Dorothy Lea, 4.

Winner—Ch. m, by Only Dare—Mollie Jones
Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Rival Dare showed the most speed all the way, but had to be shaken up in the last fifty yards to stall off Agron's bid. The latter finished stoutly after being badly outrun in the early part of the race.
Sam Lazarus Esq. ran as if back to his best form and will be hard to beat in the same kind of a field hereafter especially in the mud. Star of Bethlehem hardly ran his race. The Boer has seemingly trained off. Boomerack is an in and outer. Nyx ran well for five furlongs.

Went to post at 2:55. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second driving. Nellie Waddell outclassed her field and simply played with her opponents. ALL FAVORITES DAY.

The excellent card of races offered by the Lakeside management Saturday was the means of drawing out the largest crowd of the week, the half holiday element being much in evidence. The sport furnished a red letter day as far as favorites were concerned, the entire sever passing under the wire first. The betting was unusually brisk and heavy, the public quitting the day decidedly winner. The feature race of the day was the fifth, a handicap for three year-olds and upward at one and one-eighth miles. Orontas, which has en running consistently of late, proved to be the best and was well supported by the public. Searcher led away off to himself for the first mile, but tired rapidly in the last eighth. Here Orontas and Rolling Boer moved up fast, the former drawing easily away in the last six-teenth and winning by a length while Rolling Boer beat the tiring Searcher three-quarters of a length for second place. Omdurman was always outrun and Ben Chance was outclassed.

Money Muss showed all his speed in the fourth race, a sprint of six furlongs, leading all the way and winning in impressive fashion by beat If You Dare two lengths for second place. Sea Queen was undoubtedly the best at the weights but was handicapped by a weak ride. Federal finished stoutly and would have been third in a few more strides. Gonfalon ran well or five furlonge but tired in the last eighth. Denman Thompson was always outrun.

Evelyn Bird finally found a spot where she could win, taking the day's opener a six furlong dash without much trouble by a length from Mango which beat Harney one for second place. Harney improved suddenly and ran a good race. Homage was short. The race should do her good and put her on edge for a good race next time out. Star Cotton showed Rival Dare, despite the fact that she carried top weight succeeded in reaching the wire first in the second race, a six furlongs dash. She won by a half length from the fast closing Aaron, she beating Sam Lazarus Esq. one length for second place. Sam Lazarus Esq. is good just now and ready to win a good race, especially through the mud. Nyx and The Boer showed well for five furlongs.

Nellie Waddell outclassed the field in the third race, a scramble of five furlongs for two-year-old, and simply played with it winning well in hend by two and a half lengths. Herodes, a rank outsider in the betting, just lasted long enough to beat Amigari a nose on the post for second place. Lacrimae was always outrun. I. Samelson has seemingly Miracle II., with his light impost of 74 pounds outgamed Lennep in the closing strides of the sixth race, a dash of once around the circle, winning by a neck in a hard drive. Telamon was third, six lengths back. He ran far below expectations. Lennep opened up an early gap that seemed as if it would lead her to an easy victory, but she tired while coming down the last quarter. Pay the Fiddler came with a rush in the final eighth and would have been third in a stride or two. Wayward Boy showed well only for six furlongs.

The last race of the day went to Sarilla which easily overcame Red Apple's big lead when coming down the last quarter, winning going away by two lengths, while Red Apple beat the fast coming Precursor a length for second place Red Apple opened up a big gap all down the backstretch and well into the last quarter but was all out by the time the paddock gate had been reached. Myth had no chance from where he got off. The meeting lasts three more days which will wind up the local races for the season of 1901.

SARATOGA STAKES.

For the last time DAILY RACING FORM calls the attention of owners and trainers to the splendid list of stakes offered by the Saratoga midnight. Everyone is a turf prize of the first order, four of the seven stakes here offered be ing of the value of $10,000 each and the other three of $5,000 each. It is patent that the Saratoga Association is truly one "For the improvement of the breed of horses," since under Mr. Whitney's munificent guidance as president it is offering money in sums without precedent in the history of the famous old track and it richly deserves the most generous patronage at the hands of owners east and west. Entry blanks are ready at this office for all who may apply.

NOTES OF THE TURE.

Doyle's Commoner, the most valuable two year-old at Latonia, dropped dead in his stall about 1 a. m., Thursday. The colt was ill for about 1 a. m., Thursday. The colt was ill for several days, and, while his condition was serious, the end came very unexpectedly. Jim Baker, his trainer, made herculean efforts to save the colt and watched at his side for several nights. Doyle's Commoner was by The Commoner—Thistle, by Himyar, and was owned by P. J. Millett of Knoxville, Tenn., and was broken and trained by Jim Baker. Doyle's Commoner started six times and won five times. He was beaten in an all-age race by Springwells, in a three-quarter race over the Fort Erie track, in 1:132. The colt had no work for a week, and at that was beaten a short head by a poor ride. An offer of $8,000 was refused by Millett, as Baker considered him the best two year-old he had ever seen or trained.

T. R., St. Louis, Mo. Under the circum stances the bookmaker appears to be right. Your bet was one with an "if" involved and it was not for him to decide when a contingency arose, which you had not provided for.

L. V. Bell will ship next Wednesday a carload of horses for California, including May W., Paul Clifford, Black Dick, Sweet Tooth, Mercer, Lady Sterling and Disturber.

F. K. J., Chicago. It was no doubt the mistake of the operator sending the call. They frequently mistake the colors and identity of the ading horse

J. B.. Chicago: He was at Latonia recently and probably is now. He is not ruled off, but his license to ride was taken away by the Jockey Club.

E. H. R. As it was an impossible bet you should get your money back and study the entries more closely next time.

Winner—B. c, by Lamplighter—Sis o' Lee.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won in a canter; second driving. Lamp o' Lee quickly assumed command, showed brilliant speed, was best and is in rare form. Ben Battle broke slowly but closed up steadily throughout and acts like a longer race would suit him better. The Rogue was shut off and knocked about at different points in the race but finished like a flash. Biff made up much ground and was a good horse handicapped by a bad jockey.

Mayor Gilroy is a bad horse. Pleasant Sail will improve.

Trebor waited on Anecdote under a stiff pull to the half, where he went to the front with great ease and was not pressed thereafter. Nitrate, under vigorous handling, ran extra well and was easily second best. Althea finished fast and beat the tiring Jack McGinn in the last fifty yards.

Winner—B. f, by Tenny—Magnetism.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Tena gra is a remarkably improved filly. After respected interference in the stretch she drew out and finished very resolutely. G. Whittier, off badly and compelled to go wide on the turns, fluished like a whirlwind and was evidently best. Mary Worth went well throughout. Peninsula fin ished with a rush. Khitai was crowded in the stretch. Par Excellence appeared the winner until in the last sixteenth, where she suddenly quit. Lord Quex showed speed, but quit badly in the stretch. Trump got off poorly and was worse ridden. Pluto is best in mud and had scan chance at the start.

Winner—B. g, by Prince Royal—Tartarine.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Oom Paul is evidently a high class colt. He won with impressive ease at the end after being shaken up somewhat to stall off Ben MacDhui's challenge in the stretch. The latter showed unexpectedly well at the distance and finished strongly. Handicapper, in Daly's hands, has developed into a rank in and outer. He ran a fine race today and set a tremendously fast pace. Advance Guard was hopelessly outrun for the first three-quarters but closed an immense gap in the last three furlongs. May W. was unable to stay at the pace and distance, Imp ran poorly and had no chance at the weights in her present form.

Winner—B. c, by Clifford—Thrilling.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second driving.

Rockey was lucky and finely ridden and won going away. Connecticut, off very badly, made up a tremendous lot of ground and was probably best. Bigotry maintained har speed further than usual. Went-to post at 4:20. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Surmiss sived a strong ride, ran as if above the average and was best. Miss Almy was shut off several times and badly ridden, but finished very fast. Kingstelle appeared to be the winner to the last furlong, where she faltered, probably on account of the weight, but showed brilliant speed. CHAIRMAN YOUNG'S STATEMENT.

Statement by Chairman Lawrence A. Young, of the Western Jockey Club:

"We have made some reinstatements and will probably make more. This will be the policy of the Western Jockey Club to those who apply in good faith and who expect to remain adherents of the Western Jockey Club. We may make some mistakes, but, so far as I am advised, only one man we heretofore reinstated has abused the act of restoration by racing again on tracks not recognized by the clab. We do not look for others to do so, but, of course, where it is done there can be no possi-bility of a second reinstatement. Such act of bad faith will forever bar the party from the Western Jockey Club."

AMENDMENT TO RULE 161.

Rule 161 has been amended to read as follows: Boys who never rode a winner and who have of their own free will and with the consent of their parents or guardians, bound themselves as apprentices to owners or trainers for a term of not less than three years by a written instrument, certified copy of which has been lodged with the Stewards of the Western Jockey Club, shall be permitted to claim a five-pound allowance in all selling races, excepting selling handicaps. They shall be entitled to this allow ance for one year after being licensed as apprentices. Allowances under this rule must be claimed at the time of entry, and the owner shall not be permitted to waive such allowance except by consent of the judges.

Winner-B. g, by Big Henry-Flora Leach.
Went to post at 2:42. At post I minute. Start good. Won hendily; second driving. Frank Bell made his own pace and got too far away for the others to catch him and is in fine form. Joe Frey finished fast and could possibly have won if he had been sent after Frank Bell from the start. Bagerdon showed his usual fine speed, ran his race and finished stoutly. Royal Flush ran fairly well only and is probably not fully acclimated.

THIRD RACE-3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. c, by Emperor of Norfolk—Atalanta II.

Went to post at 3:33. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Wen easing up; second handly. Cruzadce is a splendid colt and gifted with a marvelous flight of speed. He ran like a stayer also today and made the field look cheap. Glenceuning hung on surprisingly well. He does not like to be carried fast in the first part of a race. Redan made up a lot of ground. Commissioner Forster was closing up fast at the end. Remeses showed a little early speed.
